Business Executive – Strategy and Insights — Oct '21 - Sep '23
EssenceMediacom | WPP Media — Bangalore, IN

- Monitored emerging industry trends and identified new opportunities across channels and platforms, leading knowledge-sharing sessions with client leadership and driving adoption of best practices
- Built go-to-market (GTM) strategy for Dell Alienware to strengthen brand health and revive market positioning through initiatives such as Alienware Gaming Fridays (influencer-led podcasts), Alienware Weekends (in-store gaming competitions and fan meet-ups), and participation in major gaming events, improving brand health metrics by 4–5 percentage points and elevating the brand from #4 to #2 in category rankings
- Developed MMM-based channel strategy by evaluating ROAS and spend saturation across media channels, identifying opportunities to reallocate investments toward higher-return channels
- Designed the growth strategy for Dell Futurist by identifying high-potential audience segments and interest communities to drive brand affinity, engagement, and demand generation among Gen Z and young professionals
- Spearheaded the Dell for Bharat initiative by identifying regional content preferences and audience behavior, enabling localized digital content and engagement across high-growth markets
- Collaborated with media planning teams to plan and execute integrated multi-channel campaigns across display, social, search, CTV etc ensuring seamless execution, consistent brand messaging, and data integrity
- Created a market prioritization framework for Dell's consumer & gaming laptop businesses by evaluating regions based on market potential, revenue contribution, and growth opportunity, enabling more effective allocation of marketing investments and improving ROAS by 30–40%
- Contributed to the development of an online Fractional Attribution Model by analyzing consumer touchpoints and assigning weighted values across digital channels to optimize media spend and evaluate channel contribution
- Managed and analyzed large-scale datasets, translating data into clear business insights and recommendations that informed ongoing decision-making
- Led end-to-end award submissions for WPP Media (Dell), ensuring compelling storytelling, accurate data integration, and timely submissions, contributing to 20+ wins across EMVIES, MMA Smarties, Goa Fest, and ET Media Strategy Awards, and more
